How to keep well: a text-book of health, for use in the lower grade of schools, with special reference to the effects of alcoholic drinks, tobacco and other narcotics on the bodily life

In the novel's best moments, you're perfectly in Kemper's, Ward's, or Pete's shoes, watching in stupefied horror as a decision gets made that scuppers their plans and that they can't alter or even object to, because these guys are just high enough up to have some power and influence, but never high enough to be the real players. Quattro amiche divorziate e un'agenzia matrimoniale.
