I know this is supposed to be a 19th century woman's diary, and so maybe the author was trying to reflect how her thinking might have been, but American Indians are almost all portrayed extremely negatively, I mean really negatively the only good one quickly winds up dead of course, going along with that whole "only good Indian is a dead Indian" mantra. When I was given a link to this book about a month ago I was very intrigued by the sound of this book and also I was a bit wary, as this book and new series are a bit different from the D. Lysine, arginine, proline, and histidine side chains can be oxidized to reactive aldehyde or ketone groups via carbonylation causing inactivation, crosslinking, or breakdown of proteins [39 - 40]. Stone pioneered tactics like using chain letters to get both employees and customers and it all paid off. November 14, at am.
